Skálholt is in the south of Iceland, 92 km. from Reykjavík. It is one of the most historic places in Iceland. From 1056 to 1785 Skálholt was one of the two episcopal sees in Iceland, the other being Hólar in the North. They were the two most important cultural and political centres in Iceland, besides Þingvellir where the National Assembly was held.

We are very proud that we are able to welcome you to this very special place, you can go to their website at <https://www.skalholt.is/> to find more information.

On Friday evening we will have dinner together at Skálholt. Saturday and Sunday will be according to the ISIC agenda.

Coach Trip and Dinner

As a 40th anniversary celebration of DÍF we are inviting you all on a 160 km. coach trip, stopping at some places of interest on Sunday afternoon. We will leave after lunch and after the seminar is over.

The coach trip will end at Vitinn, a fish restaurant in Sandgerði, near Keflavík, where DÍF will be inviting you all to dinner in the evening. This is the reason we have organised accommodation for your last evening in Keflavík. We will stop off there on the way to the restaurant so you can organise your rooms.

Let me know if you need any more information and we look forward seeing you at the seminar.
